

Speaker	Day	Time	Title	Brief Description
John W. Franklin Eli Grayson	Wednesday	9:00am - 9:45am	Slavery, Forced Migration & Land: African and Native Americans During and After Slavery	The Africans encountered Native Americans and Europeans once they arrived from the slavery trade. This session will explore the relation of both Africans & Native Americans to the land, making use of historic maps that are not well known.
Dr. Pauline Harris	Wednesday	10:15am - 11:00am	Griffith's "Birth of a Nation" contribution to the 1921 Race Massacre	D.W. Griffith's technically groundbreaking but notoriously Ku Klux Klan-friendly Movie
Dr. Paula Price	Wednesday	1:00pm - 1:45pm	Reconciliation and Technology: Neutral Resources for Social Good	Proposal Premise: In short, neutrality gives everyone access to opportunity. Social media's pervasive platforms make everyone's vision and mission adaptable and diversified; diversity being the very heart of reconciliation.
Karen Harmon Gary Young- Allen	Wednesday	2:15pm - 3:00pm	Who Am I When No One's Looking: Color Me Human	Skin color is intimately connected to social constructions of race.
Samuel Sinyangwe	Wednesday	6:00pm - 7:00pm	Wednesday Keynote Speaker	Wednesday Keynote: Community, Free Event

Speaker	Day	Time	Title	Brief Description
David Adams Miguel Da Corte	Thursday	9:00am - 9:45am	Using Change Management for Effective Reconciliation	Understanding the people side of change as a means of building an effective, sustainable reconciliation plan.
Dr. Thomas Jorsch	Thursday	10:15am - 11:00am	The Oldest Technology: Natural Resources as Neutral Resources	Urban environmental rehabilitation projects organized and led by aggrieved communities offer possibilities to restore not only the physical landscape, but community relations, dignity, and spiritual connection to humanity.
Kristen Marangoni Gay Phillips	Thursday	1:00pm - 1:45pm	Mapping Greenwood	Several service-learning courses at TCC are working together toward a geo-tagged map of the Greenwood and surrounding areas to help facilitate self-guided walking tours of the area.
Jeffrey Kennedy Rhonda Grayson Damario Solomon Sharon Lenzy-Scott	Thursday	2:15pm - 3:00pm	Exploring the Culture & History of the Creek Freedmen of Indian Territory	Exploring the culture and History of the Creek Freedmen of Indian Territory
Jim North	Thursday	3:30 – 4:15 pm	The Keyboard: Mightier than the Sword	Storytelling through publication, online and print
Gilcrease Museum: Elders & Youth	Thursday	6:00pm - 7:00pm	Thursday Evening Session (Youth Focused)	Conversation between Elders & Youth on Heritage and Technology to Bridge the Gap of Generational Sharing of Knowledge and Respect; Community, Free Event

Speaker	Day	Time	Title	Brief Description
Rev. Robert Johnson	Friday	9:00am - 9:45am	Prophetic Faith in Current American Politics	Equipping people of faith to be a prophetic - and not partisan - presence in the current dilemma of American politics
Dr. Valarie McGaha Crystal Wilson	Friday	10:15am - 11:00am	Resilience Factors towards Higher Education Completion	The purpose of this proposal is to examine resiliency factors towards post-secondary education success.
Pat Smith Kevin Mambo Lamar Cheston Andrew Drake Louisa Jaggar	Friday	11:30am - 12:15pm	The Flying Hobos Play	The Flying Hobos play illustrates the untold story of James Herman Banning, Oklahoma pioneer aviator, who despite the racial barriers of his time would see his dream to fly realized through sheer will, courage and ingenuity.
Kayla G. Harding Cathy Bankston	Friday	1:00pm - 1:45pm	Empowering Students' Language and Literacy Capital/ Acknowledging Cultural Bias	Using culturally relevant practices, we offer practical ways instructors can construct language curricula to "transform and enrich the lives" of all students.
Gilcrease Museum: Display Tour	Friday	6:00pm - 7:00pm	Friday Evening Session	Virtual Display and Explanation of Museum Holdings with Brief Discussion; Community, Free Event

Speaker	Day	Time	Title	Brief Description
M. von Nkosi	Monday	9:00am - 9:45am	Pinning the World: Reconciliation Through Realities	Move a Reconciliation Agenda Forward from Your Pocket
Ron Graham	Monday	10:15am - 11:00am	The Indian Territory Freedmen Saga	An Intricate look at the Dawes Commission in Indian Territory/Oklahoma
Veronica Jackson	Monday	11:30am - 12:15pm	Museum Presentation: Humanizing the Heretofore Voiceless in Museum Exhibits	Presentation on HOW exhibits tell stories to WHAT and more importantly, WHOSE stories are told
Theophus "Thee" Smith	Monday	1:00pm - 1:45pm	Trust building Truth speaking vs. 'Deepfake Justice'	How Can Restorative Justice Initiatives Earn the Trust of a Public in Unwitting Complicity with Civic Structures that Perpetuate Social Injustices and Related Human Rights Violations?
Carlos Moreno	Monday	2:15 pm - 3:00 pm	Civic Technology and Social Justice	Civic Technology seeks to create a government of the people, by the people, and for the people, in the 21st Century
Daniel Snell	Monday	3:30pm - 4:15pm	Is There an APP for Empathy?	Historical Fiction Can Teach Empathy
Vanessa Adams-Harris	Monday	6:00pm - 7:00pm	Monday Evening Session	Storytelling: Sharing the Story of Greenwood, showcasing Vanessa Adams-Harris; Community, Free Event

Speaker	Day	Time	Title	Brief Description
Drew Diamond Nancy Pettus	Tuesday	9:00am - 9:45am	Why So Few?	Community upstanders, why we need them.
Timothy Janak Carmen Janak	Tuesday	10:15am - 11:00am	Illuminating or Obstructing? Society's Portrayals of Interracial Couples	Interracial Couples and intersectionality of race and reconciliation discussions
Mikael Vaughn	Tuesday	11:30am - 12:15pm	Urban Coders Guild's Black Wall Street	Building an ecosystem honoring the living legacy of Black Wall Street
Lisa Iverson	Tuesday	1:00pm - 1:45pm	Genealogy: Ambassador for Reconciliation	How genealogy in combination with systemic family constellation methods can be a tool for ending patterns of racism
Avery Marshall Moises Echeverria	Tuesday	2:15pm - 3:00pm	Use of Technology After Camp Anytown	This workshop is a look into how youth use technology after being exposed to diversity, equity, and inclusion concepts.